Board of Directors Nomination Form

Nominations for the Board of Directors for the Canadian Association of Railway Suppliers are accepted on an ongoing basis. The Board Development Committee reviews submissions and will make recommendations to the Board of directors for appointments. The nomination process is held in strict confidence. As a result, it is important to note that the Committee does not disclose the status of nominations at any time. Please note that all directors will be asked to submit a headshot that will be posted on the CARS website.

The nomination form must be completed and submitted along with your bio to:
